REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

Saluda River Academy for the Arts (SRAA), built in 1954, is a suburban community school that serves 375 students in kindergarten through fifth grade. This year was the second time within the last six years that we received a national award—The John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts National Schools of Distinction in Arts Education Award. The award was given because of the opportunities we provide to make the arts a meaningful, integrated part of each child's day. Additionally, we were recognized by the SC Senate, SC House of Representatives, SC Board of Education, SC Department of Education, Lexington County Council, and Lexington #2 Board of Trustees for our achievements.

Our students were presented with unique opportunities to showcase the school by performing for the SC Legislatures during Arts Advocacy Day and when we hosted the SC Arts-In-Basic Curriculum (ABC) meeting. SRAA was featured in SC-ETV's ARTICulation Live program. During the 2009—2010 school year, we met Adequate Yearly Progress. We continue to be a Nationally Distinguished Title One School and have been accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS) for the last thirty-eight years. To date, we have received over $150,000 in grants. Our accolades are a reflection of the strong support from our SIC, PTO, and community.

Our school community lives the mission and motto of "Advancing Every Student" through the use of data, an integrated philosophy, and high expectations. This year, we were delighted to have a full-time Instructional Facilitator to assist the faculty in instructional strategies, as well as analyzing and utilizing data to be better equipped in make data-driven decisions. We were a pilot site for Habits of Mind. Through this instructional approach, we are able to promote thinking and academic excellence within children, regardless of diverse needs. We continued the implementation of our READ 120 classroom, HeadSprout, and Compass Learning to provide differentiated instruction for all students.

Our unique Arts program is integrated into the curriculum and is a channel for improving our students' achievement, confidence, and communication. Additionally, our programs expose students to the various facets of the Arts while teaching discipline, expression, cooperation, and character. Four artists-in-residents provided instruction for our students in the areas of mime, dance, rhythm composition, and Native American art. We offered after-school arts classes. Other extra-curricular activities included: Once Upon a Puppet Troupe, Bubblin' Bobcat Chorus, Dance Company, Art Majors Club, and Arts Unlimited. We endeavor to develop in children an understanding of the importance of giving back to the community. To that end, we participated in various community service projects, including performing at community events, such as The West-Metro Chamber of Commerce.

Saluda River Academy for the Arts, united with our community, remains committed to "Advancing Every Student." As a team, we endeavor to touch the minds and hearts of all learners by living the mission.
